About Organizer

Guangzhou Automobile Service Industry Association

The Guangzhou Automobile Service Industry Association was officially established in 2000, which is one of the earliest legally established, industry-specific, comprehensive, and non-profit social organizations with independent legal personality in Guangzhou. The association is jointly initiated and voluntarily formed by various automotive-related enterprises in the Guangzhou area, including automobile dealership groups, brand 4S shops, used car trading markets, used car dealerships and brokers, automotive parts and accessories sales, automotive repair and modification, automotive finance and insurance, inspection and certification and evaluation institutions, automotive e-commerce platforms, car rental services, automotive intelligent manufacturing and applications, and automotive (used car) import and export trade. The core members are the leading dealerships of mainstream automotive brands in South China.
